

What we've been up to

We have been very busy since returning from the Christmas break. Our topic for this half term is 'Traditional Tales'. We have looked at 'The Three Little Pigs' where we enjoyed pretending to be the big bad wolf and blowing the houses down! 'Goldilocks And The Three Bears' where we had lots of fun making 'porridge'. During the 'Three Billy Goat's Gruff' week we enjoyed pretending to trip trap over the bridge and become the ugly troll. This week we have looked at 'Jack and The Beanstalk' where we have enjoyed becoming the giant and saying 'Fee-fi-fo-fum'. Whilst also reading the story we have been watching them on BBC Musical Storyland. We were very lucky to receive some money to buy some new toys before Christmas, the magnetic tiles and kinetic sand have proven to become very popular! For Chinese new year this week, we have made some very sparkly lanterns. We, as always, have been enjoying singing lots of different nursery rhymes. We have also been enjoying our listening activities during phonics.
